

BUD CARLSON ACADEMY Student-to-Student Expectations

It is an honor and privilege to be a student enrolled in the Bud Carlson Academy. In order to keep your spot you need to meet the challenges and expectations of the staff as well as other students. These are student driven expectations written for the students by the students.

- ✚ Be respectful to staff, other students, parents, and our community.
- ✚ Be respectful of the BCA property and the property of others.
Keep the Academy clean we are responsible for cleaning our own area so don't destroy things, throw things or write on tables.
- ✚ Be appropriate in your behaviors.
You want to be treated like an adult it is time to act like one.
- ✚ Use appropriate language.
No swearing or name calling
- ✚ Represent the BCA in a positive manner.
Use appropriate behavior in school, in the community center, and in other public areas.
Follow all school rules
Be where you are suppose to be when you are suppose to be there
- ✚ Appreciate the school and use privileges wisely.
There are a lot of kids waiting to get into the Academy so you are lucky you are here.
- ✚ The honor of the group is equal to that of the individual – Everyone has the same expectations. How you behave reflects on the BCA staff and students.
- ✚ Care about your education – want to be here!
